

Legal technology and its impact on the access to justice, society, and the legal industry

Date: 23-24 June 2022, 8.50 a.m. - 5.00 p.m.

Venue: University of Public Service,
Ludovika Campus
Educational Building, Lecture Hall III.
(1083 Budapest, Üllői út 82.)

legaltechconf.uni-nke.hu

International Conference organised by the “Digital Justice” research group of the Institute of the Information Society, University of Public Service

Supported by European Legal Technology Association

The conference will bring together the international legaltech community to discuss three key issues in three panels:

- Legaltech in the service of access to justice and dispute resolution
- Legaltech in the service of efficiency
- Ethical, theoretical and regulatory issues of legaltech

Guest speakers include:

- Dory Reiling
retd senior judge, former IT program manager for the Netherlands judiciary
- Dariusz Szostek
Professor of the Faculty of Law and Administration at the University of Silesia, editor of the LegalTech handbook published by Nomos
- Andrea Miskolczi
Europe Director of Innovation – Dentons
- Eric Eck
Director – Legal Function Consulting & Legal Managed Services, Ernst & Young
- Kai Jacob
partner in Legal Operations & Transformation Services (LOTS) at KPMG Law, co-chair Liquid Legal Institute

Online participation is subject to registration.
Please visit <https://ludevent.uni-nke.hu/e/legaltech> for registration and further information.

UNIVERSITY OF PUBLIC SERVICE
LUDOVIKA

